27-1540620*Form 990 - Organization's Mission

Just Communities programs work together as part of a larger strategy to address racial and socio-economic disparities in educational opportunity and outcomes. To that end, an independent evaluation of our work was conducted in 2013. It found that: "Just Communities accelerated change through its IEE and supplementary programming at Dos Pueblos High School, La Colina Junior High, and McKinley Elementary to different degrees. Each had facets of leadership support, common language, community resource engagement, and critical mass for change. This pilot study's triangulation of policy, process, and achievement indicators along the theory of change are evidence that Just Communities made a measurable contribution to Latino Student Achievement between the 2007/2008 and 2011/2012 school years..." (Rubayi Srivastava & Michelle Enriquez, Contribution Analysis: A Pilot Study, September 2013, pg. 7.)

Specifically, since partnering with Just Communities, the Santa Barbara Unified School District has seen the following increases in the academic achievement of Latino/a students:

- A 43% increase in English Language Arts (ELA) proficiency on National Standards at the elementary level.
- A 27% increase in Math proficiency on National Standards at the elementary level.
- A 70 point increase in elementary school level Academic Performance Index (API) scores.
- A 56% increase in ELA proficiency on National Standards at the secondary level.

The Language Access Initiative (LAI): The LAI aims to create a more inclusive community by improving access to multilingual spaces in which people can connect across differences of language, culture, race, ethnicity, and immigration experience. Language access ensures that everyone's voices are heard and included in the process of school improvement and community change. LAI seeks to ensure our local schools have enough highly trained personnel who can serve as high quality interpreters in order to ensure all people are able to fully participate regardless of language background. LAI also provides ongoing training and support for experienced and aspiring interpreters of all levels who share a commitment to social justice principles. Through the LAI, we will help North County schools develop a cadre of interpreters who can work with
